GEORGE T. BERRY, ALBERTA PIONEER PASSED AWAY MONDAY, JUNE 14TH

The death of George T. Berry occurred at the family residence from heart trouble Monday last at 7 a.m. after a brief illness. One of the highly respected and active citizens of the West since 1886, Mr. Berry will be remembered by a host of friends who will regret his demise.

He was born in Chatham, Ontario, in 1865, his father being Wm. Berry, who had bought a block of 24 sections of land near Pincher Creek. It was to take charge of this ranch that George T. Berry came West. As a very young man before coming west Mr. Berry had won the world championship for speed in roller skating, doing 5 miles in 19 minutes. The medal presented to him on this occasion comprised gold from every gold producing country in the world and is set in diamonds. Mr. Berry also received a number of other very fine medals won in different events. The Geo. T. Berry racing skate is still being manufactured.

After coming west Mr. Berry engaged in ranching for a number of years. It was during this time that his wife and Miss Anna Gill came out from Toronto to visit their son, and brother George Gill, first Hudson Bay Factor in Pincher. A romance developed which early culminated in the marriage of George Berry and Mrs. Gill. Their early life was spent on the ranch and many thrilling tales could be told of hardships endured. It was here their three children were born. Giving up ranching the family moved into Pincher Creek where Mr. Berry resided on a hardware business. During this period both Mr. and Mrs. Berry took an active part in the establishing of the Anglican Church, one of the oldest in Alberta. Hospital aid and all social activities.

After leaving Pincher, Mr. and Mrs. Berry travelled extensively about some 4 or 5 years to recuperate Mr. Berry's failing health. In 1911 they came to Strathmore where they carried on the hardware business in the store now occupied by Mr. A. Bellinger. During Mr. Berry's residence in Strathmore he served many years on the Town Council, was instrumental in establishing Lambert Park and served as rector's warden in St. Michael's Church.

In 1927 the family took up residence on the farm 12 miles east, where they have since resided. A home where hospitality has been most generously dispensed.

CORONATION COMPOSITIONS

The Standard is in receipt of several compositions written by pupils of E. P. Cameron's room, describing in quite minute detail the celebration of the Coronation held recently. In believing it would be establishing a bad precedent to publish these we are refraining from doing so. Suffice it to say however that the essays show quite a clear grasp of the points made in the speeches delivered by Mr. Gilbert and Mayor Hughes.

A particularly humanitarian key was struck when one young writer had enjoyed the day so much he wished there might be a coronation every week. Thus realizing that it could not be possible by the death or de-thronement of the present sovereign, he chafed to visit them a long and happy reign.

THE STATESMANSHIP OF LIFE INSURANCE

(By Gratian O'Leary)

From the standpoint of the individual, life insurance is the finest, wisest and safest investment that a man can make. It gives his security, a greater self-respect, a higher reserve of character.

I am in favor of it because it gives a man an estate; because it purchases security, increases confidence, removes fear, and establishes credit.

But I am in favor of life insurance for one other reason—to my mind the greatest reason of all. I am in favor of it because it is one of the greatest factors in our national life today in the creation of a sense of individual responsibility. That, to my mind—the sense of responsibility is the individual himself—is one of the Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Gladys Morgan and Son Hugh. One son Bert was killed in action in France, a grandson Billy Morgan and one sister, Mrs. Harry Jenkins of Pincher Creek.

The funeral was held from St. Michael's Church Wednesday, June 16th, the Rev. T. B. Winter, a former pastor, conducting the service. Floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

The Pall Bearers were, Messrs R. S. Stockton, A. Pierson, C. F. Nichol, D. A. Perry, J. J. Pettie and P. D. McNaughton.

Interment was made in Strathmore Cemetery, Chase & Co. Funeral Directors, in charge.

WEDDINGS

THURBORN—MOE

The home of Mrs. L. R. Heggins was the scene of a pretty wedding on the afternoon of June 14th, when Katherine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Moe, of Langdon, became the bride of Mr. George A. Thurnborn, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Thurnborn of Eckville, Alberta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. D. Bonard.

At 2 o'clock the bride entered the living room on the arm of her father to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Margaret Brander. Pink satin ribbons, held by Mrs. E. Scott, Miss Audrey Anley, Miss Patricia Thurnborn and Miss Zella McMullen formed an aisle for the bride party. The bride wore a gown of white tulle with lace, made on princess lines, with a matching jacket, and a bandeau of pink rose buds and lilies of the valley in her dark hair. She carried a bouquet of hydrangeas, roses and valley lilies. The bride's only attendant was Miss Berta McLeod, who was becomingly veiled in white green and white, with which she carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations. Mr. Harvey Bird, of Rockford, was the best man, and during the signing of the register, Mr. L. R. Heggins sang "I Love You."

Tall baskets of lilies and pink snapdragons, backed by ferns decorated the living room following the ceremony, where the guests were received by Mrs. L. R. Heggins, Mrs. E. T. Moe and Mrs. Thurnborn. A buffet supper was served to the 26 guests who were present. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake surrounded by pink and mauve sweet peas, arranged in small silver vases. Mrs. J. P. McLeod and Mrs. P. Ashley presided at the table, and Mrs. Moe and Miss Margaret Brander acted as bridesmaids. Assisting in serving were Miss Patricia Thurnborn, Miss Audrey Anley and Miss Zella McMullen.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Thurnborn left by motor for Hanf and points west. The bride's traveling costume was a black wool suit with white fuchsia of red, accented by the pink cape. With this, she wore a wide brimmed hat of black, adorned with fuchsia, trimmed with red. Other accessories were black shoes and bag, and red gloves.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Thurnborn will reside in Rockford.

A TRIP TO EDMONTON

Leaving town early Wednesday afternoon, June 16th, by the algonquin car, in a rain we were only too pleased to move, the mayor and secretary, accompanied by several members of the Council to the second annual convention of the Union of Alberta Journalists to be held at Edmonton, we met our counterparts very far from home, a train having passed us a four min. spike, when we had taken at the Logan Village.

Having been advised to travel by bus to avoid roads and to be met between Lacombe and Calgary, we turned at Langdon corner and proceeded over the road leading to from there, no better than a dirt road, still traveling under heavy rain conditions, with rain and mud splattered on the windshield, giving some work for the wiper than it could properly accomplish.

By the time we had arrived at Edmonton, the rain had ceased, and it looked as if that part of the country had not participated in such rains as the country left behind and identified by the fact that country appeared to be very dry for quite a stretch from that point, across a three hills and Alx the same, although they had some ponds from passing showers. As we continued our way on the Alx-Lacombe road we had more trouble, a three inch spike (this time) having caused it to get in the same the that absorbed the four inch spike. After supper at Lacombe we proceeded without further delay to Edmonton on our journey, except a hard surfaced stretch between Lacombe and Ponoka. It was rather late when we arrived at our destination, passing over territory new to us through a beautiful country. We thoroughly enjoyed our trip.

The convention opened on Thursday with a full attendance of delegates from all parts of the Province, one from Calgary Grand Prairie, four hundred miles distant, who told us that he left Edmonton twenty-six years ago for that part, travelling by ox team, and that the trip took him six weeks. Now he can travel by plane in four hours! This has since been bridged the distance.

During a two day session he had addresses on health, taxation and relief, but the most interesting subjects from a delegate's point of view were contained in the resolutions, of which there were many centering around the relief situation, and the allocation of taxation between the senior governments and the municipalities, with the personnel demand from the latter for a larger share to help out to which the governments turn a deaf ear. The Minister of Municipal Affairs, Mr. Lucien Maynard, was present for a short time at one of our meetings, but he did not speak. We had, however, a short address from Mr. Solon Low, Provincial Treasurer.

Through the kindness of Mayor Clarke and the City of Edmonton delegates were entertained to a civic banquet on Thursday evening in the McManis Hotel, and it was some banquet. For a whole hour, and no doubt he could have gone on for another hour, we had a wonderful address on hockey from Charles Campbell, an Edmonton lawyer and referee at national hockey, internationally known not only to sport fans but to the public generally. He pictured hockey as he sees it from the inside, and gave us many side lights on general hockey. Everyone there and non-fans thoroughly enjoyed his talk. After that time went fast and furious, the fun makers being the Mayors of Calgary, Lethbridge and Vegreville, besides which we had some forty members.

The whole community will be pleased to learn that our popular Mayor had the honour of a place on the executive of the Union, a great honour seeing there are so many to pick up. I believe we were all satisfied with the convention and realize the benefits of such a Union and the benefits flowing from such conventions.

Having already trespassed on space I have no room left to tell of our return journey by bus, but I cannot say that the roads, unless the stretch hard-surfaced, were far from what they should be and that both passengers and cars got well shaken up, something not good for either. T.M.W.

THE OTTAWA SPOTLIGHT

By William Eggleston

Ottawa, June 16th.—It is too soon to tell how much damage to the federal Liberal party has been done by the public reaction to the Premier's speech, who told the world that he was no longer a follower of Mackenzie King. One rather awkward consequence is that it has put the federal Liberal have always relied upon the provincial Liberal association for their election campaign. Premier Heppner has made it clear that is cutting the painter from the federal party he takes his organization along with him, and it would seem as though the federal Liberals must face the need of setting up their own machinery for the next general election. Since the election of the Premier in 1924 made it considerably easier for the Mackenzie King Liberal party to secure such a large representation in the following year. Anything which splits the Liberals in Ontario is equally likely to result in a standing there. A Provincial election will almost certainly precede a federal election. The latter is not due until 1929 or 1930, whereas Premier Heppner will hardly delay making an appeal to the people beyond 1928.

Centre Dominating Party
If the federal Liberal party is doomed to lose thirty or forty seats in the next federal election, there is much to be said for losing them in the central provinces, according to the views of some commentators. During the last session the Liberal party here showed grave signs of becoming much more firmly in sentiment than it used to be, and the explanations which one got was that the Liberal party was now dominated by Ontario and Quebec. Instead, as formerly, by western Canada and the Maritimes. Naturally, such a shift of influence would have profound effects on tariff policies and such things. In other words, it might be a healthy thing for the future of the Liberal party if its representation in Ontario and Quebec did fall a little so long as it could maintain its strength elsewhere.

Indeed, one hears it said that if Premier Heppner had not come out publicly with his renunciation of Mackenzie King leadership, it might have been necessary for the late prime minister or the Minister of Labour in their turn to repudiate the Labour doctrines of Messrs. Heppner and Duplessis. Now that is probably unnecessary.

The ripple thrown on Federal politics.

might have been a serious accident small container of gas he was holding became ignited by a spark from the engine, causing it to shoot upward over his head. Lucky he had the pre-clothing to extinguish the flames. As it was, his hand and arm was quite scorched.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to go

The liver should get out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest.
It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach, you get constipated, nervous, peevish, you lose sleep, and your liver sinks and the world looks pink.

A liver-based movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes these goods out Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you wake up in the morning. They do the work of a natural but have no oil or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by

This fact affords a striking illustration of the "double duty" performed by Life Insurance dollars. Not only do they ensure financial security for the men, women and children of Canada, but they also help to build and finance their farms and homes.

Life Insurance companies exercise the greatest care in the selection of properties upon which mortgage loans are made. To safeguard the savings of policyholders, security of principal and interest is and must always be the first consideration.

AN IMPROPER METHOD

(The Hanna Herald)
Blamable debt legislation is ill advised, unfair and harmful. Alberta people need expect no permanent advantage from such laws. On the contrary they will do irreparable harm.

Most people are honest. The great majority of debtors want to pay. Alberta people are not the chiselers and defaulters that they now appear to be before the eyes of Canada and of the world.

There are a considerable number of Alberta farmers, however, who simply cannot meet their mortgage obligations. But crops and low prices over half a dozen years have robbed them of their earning power. These people must have special consideration.

The way Manitoba and Saskatchewan tackled the problem of farm mortgage indebtedness was reasonable and sensible. First they got the interest rate cut to six per cent, which is where it should be. Then they arranged with the lending institutions for adjustments in instances where interest rates of interest had accumulated. This eased the debtor's name from the role of the shirker and gave him a fresh start and a new equipment.

In Saskatchewan alone fifteen million dollars were written off mortgage indebtedness through commonsense cooperation, and a comparative amount was relieved from debtors' backs in Manitoba.

In Alberta today no debtor knows for sure whether he has been relieved of a cent of accumulated indebtedness. Blamable debt legislation has been a curse rather than a blessing.

A man who can pay should pay. A man who can't pay should be aided. Blamable debt legislation does not work that way. A plan of compromise and adjustment does work that way.

Alberta is not completely down and out—rank for all time. This province can and will come back. The time will come when our farmers will again require credit. That is something our people should never forget.

So let us handle the present problem of debts in a reasonable, sensible and decent manner. Let us follow sound British tradition and example. Let us forget this South American idea of default and blanket debt legislation. Such a move is a step in progressive human degeneration.

GREAT CHANGES

Great changes are taking place in education today in keeping with the changing tide of human progress, and no place of education is coming in for more attention than adult or continued education. People of life are realizing the need of continuing their education in later life in order to increase their efficiency and to add to the joy of living.

Alberta people will be particularly interested in the Alberta School of Community Life which is being held in the School of Agriculture at Olds from June 21st to July 10th inclusive. This is the first school for adults in Alberta and is open to all men and women over 18 years of age. There are no entrance requirements, no examinations, and no diplomas.

The courses offered are: International Affairs and Current History, Rural Sociology and Social Science, Citizenship, Dramatic and Public Speaking, Appreciation of English Literature, and Co-operative Principles.

Well known lecturers will be Dr. H. I. Stewart of Dalhousie University, famous radio commentator of the C. P. C., and Dr. Harold C. Ritter of Columbia University.

The tuition fee is only $50 for the complete course and a proportionate amount for part time. Room and board in the dormitory is $1.00 per day, or people may camp out if they so desire.

OTTAWA SPOTLIGHT

 real waters, therefore, by the Hop-burn pronouncement was much fainter than might have been expected. The federal Liberals feel to some extent that it is Premier Hepburn's funeral not theirs.

Meantime the report, circulated via a Toronto financial paper, that a Gardiner-Hepburn alliance was looming as the next major move in federal politics has been given little evidence. Hon. J. G. Gardiner has made it clear that while he holds no ill will toward W. Hepburn, the rumor so far as he was concerned was more laughable than credible.
